

Obvious! Healthy and crispy.

About us

Taler Snacks is a healthy food product created in Lithuania, which contains only natural ingredients. We are a family business that has been producing Taler snacks for over 30 years. Taler Snacks are popular because they are made more individually than all other chips. They are not fried in oil, they are made only with natural ingredients! Palm oil, dyes, flavor, and odor enhancers, and preservatives are not used in the production.

Taler Snacks can be eaten by everyone - both young and old!

Taler Snacks – healthy and crispy:

Taler Snacks are oven-baked without the use of fat, making them healthier than many snacks on the market, and they don't get your hands dirty.

Made only with natural ingredients, without using artificial flavor enhancers and preservatives.

The assortment has a large selection of various flavors – salty and sweet, which can be eaten alone or with various spreads.

A great snack for traveling, you can safely snack with children. Both the younger and older will like it.

We have been working and developing the Taler brand in Lithuania for more than 30 years, we are a socially responsible company.
